The candidates for the county offices are all making things hum.
A number of them attended a meeting at Jeffersonville, where A.
A. Hazlerigg and John Roberts made speeches in their own interest and Lawrence White in the interest of his father.

Wednesday night at "Nest Egg," in the Levee precinct, a number were present and several speeches made. Among the speakers were Woodford, Groves and Reid. Jones says he made no speech.

A CARD.

To the Democrats of Montgomery County:

A candidate must be in desperate straits when his friends resort to misrepresentations to aid his cause. I did not make such a statement, publicly or privately, as is attributed to me in the card of I. N. Green and others, published in the last issue of the Times. The appended statement by reputable gentlemen who were present on the occasion referred to, some of whom are supporters of Mr. Hunt, should be satisfactory corroboration of my denial.

Having noticed an article in the Montgomery County Times of date June 2, 1894, signed by I. N. Green, Henry Watson, J. E. Hall and C.
B. Stephens, in which article it is stated that Henry Jones said at a meeting in the Levee precinct, "Let Richardson and Siedel, the head of the ticket, make the speeches, I am no speaker," we, the undersigned, present at said meeting during all the time Mr. Jones was there, know and now state that he (Jones) made no such public statement or anything that could be construed into any such language or meaning.

N. M. Boone, T. W. Barrow, H. M. Witt, Seth Combs, R. L. Smith, Clifford Daniel,
J. W. Willis, Hugh Pasley, W. M. Bowen, James Witt.

They also attempt to injure Mr.
Siedel by publishing in the same paper a certificate of the County Clerk, that I voted for Andy Cline for Jailer in 1882. The people of the county know that I have been a consistent Democrat all my life, and I do not think they can be influenced against me because of affection and respect for my sister I voted for my brother-in-law.

45-21
—HENRY JONES.

Mrs. Ann E. Wood died at her residence in this city on Sunday morning June 3, aged 63 years. For several years Mrs. Wood has been in very poor health, and the end was not unlooked for. More than 30 years ago she moved to this county from Fleming, where she was raised and had married Mr. John Wood, and has since made this place her home. Her husband died in 1871 and left her with six little children to fight alone her way through life. A good and true mother who was ever ready to do her utmost for those God had left in her hands and who counted nothing a sacrifice that would add to the pleasure or well-being of her little ones.
Bravely she fought the battle and shealed to her boys grew up successful business men who could repay her in some degree for the many sacrifices she had made for them. We talk of the heroines of old, but the heroism of a Boudicca or a Joan of Arc pales into insignificance before that of the mother who with six little ones left on her hands, in the face of adverse fate, alone and single handed, makes the way for herself and them, through this pushing, bustling, work-a-day world of ours.

Mrs. Wood was a sister of Mrs. A.
T. Wood and Mr. Henry Pickrell, of this city. Mrs. F. F. Fitch a daughter lives in Cedar town, Georgia, two daughters Misses Kate and Edna, of this city, and three sons, William, L. T. and John F. live with us.
Funeral this afternoon at the residence on Harrison Avenue. Burial in Macpherson Cemetery.

W. O. Mize, W. T. Caskey, John W. Craven, B. F. Quickell, A. D. Lacy, and H. C. Lacy, of Hazel Green, were in town Thursday evening and Friday morning, on their way to Winchester, to attend the Blue Grass Declamatory Contest. Mr. H. C. Lacy was a contestant for the honor and whilst he did not win, acquitted himself to the entire satisfaction of his friends. He will yet get there.

Elder H. B. Robison, of the popular pastor of the Somerset Christian Church, of this county, will exchange pulpits with Elder Graham Frank, of Lancaster, next Lord's Day.
Brother Robison will on June 14 leave for a month's vacation, which he expects to spend with friends at Athens Georgia.

Snow fell for an hour at Point Pleasant, West Virginia, last Thursday, May 31st.

THE PRIMARY.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY.

An Unprecedented Offer to the Subscribers of THE ADVOCATE.

OUR PLAN.

We have made arrangements to offer to the reader of THE ADVOCATE, who shall guess the nominee of the Democratic Primary, June 14, in each race, a splendid buggy horse.

This splendid animal is out of an Indian Colof mare, and is a beautiful bay, five-years-old, 15½ hand high, with fine style and action. A fine roadster and will show for himself on the streets of Mt. Sterling Court Day, at 11 a. m. and at 3 p. m. This is a prize well worth getting.

Terms of The Guessing.

Send 25 cents for three months' subscription to the ADVOCATE and fill out the coupon, which will be registered and a faithful account kept.
You get the paper for three months and you may be the person to whom a present will be made of the horse.

This is no gambling scheme. You pay for what you get, and we, in order to induce you to help us extend our subscription list, have secured a splendid roadster to give away to some one. Cut the coupon out and write in the blank space left for the purpose the name of your favorite for each position. Enclose this with 25 cents for three months' subscription to the ADVOCATE, signing your own name in the blank left for the voter.

The names of the voters will be registered as received, and the person guessing the nominees first will be entitled to the horse. Bulletins will be put out giving names of candidates with highest number of guesses, and the names of the candidates receiving highest number of guesses will be published in each issue of the Advocate between now and June 14.

A BIG JUNE FROST

Does Great Damage in Southeastern Kentucky.

Middleborough, Ky., June 1.—
There was another frost last night.
Immense damage has been done to gardens and young corn. Wheat is also injured. The oldest inhabitant can remember nothing like the present season.

Hood's and Only Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper berries and other well known remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative powers not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures when other preparations fail.

The State Association of Kentucky Baptists.

CARLISLE, Ky., June 3, 1894.

The Kentucky Association of Baptists met with the Carlisle Baptist church Saturday morning, June 2, with about two hundred messengers and visitors in attendance. They are being elegantly entertained by the hospitable people of Carlisle and vicinity, respectively of denomination. Dr. W.
H. Felix, of Lexington, was made Moderator, and Dr. A. D. Sealey, of Woodford, Secretary, and Rev. J.
K. Nunnally, of Georgetown, Assistant Secretary. The oldest messengers to the Association was Mr.
Robertson, of Louisville, aged 76, and Mr. Sherrell, of same place, who after addressing the Association were invited to seats on the platform. A stormy session on the questions of missions had been expected, but so far the workings of the Association has been characterized with oneness of thought and expression. The Association will meet next year with the First Baptist church at Paducah. The annual sermon was preached by the venerable Dr. W. W. Gardner, well known to Kentucky Baptists.
Sunday morning a mass Sunday-school meeting was held at the Baptist church of Carlisle, and in the afternoon the Ladies' Missionary Society was held at the same place. Large interest and much enthusiasm manifested at each meeting. Reports showed remarkable growth in number to the church, and contributions to various objects. Rev. J. O. Rust, of Bardonia, one of the most gifted young preachers of the State, preached Sunday morning at the Opera House; Dr. W. A. Pickard, of Broadway Baptist church, Louisville, preached at the M. E. church. Dr. Pickard is a grand man and preached a grand sermon.
You have to hear him to fully appreciate his ability, and all other pulpits were supplied by able preachers of the denomination.
The Baptist church, of Mt. Sterling, was well represented by Rev.
Everette Gill, W. R. Nunnally and wife, J. W. Hadden and wife, Mrs.
Tol. Young, Mrs. Fred Bassett and Misses Sallie Greene, Nannie Reed and Margaret Thomson.

Emerson Institute (Miss Lewis's school) closed a successful year on Friday. The school will re-open on Monday September 3. Miss Lewis will spare nothing to make this school all that Mt. Sterling needs in a high grade institution for girls. Before making any arrangements for their daughters' tuition for the coming year, parents and guardians will do well to see Miss Lewis and know of her plans for work in her school.

Elder H. D. Clark, pastor of the Christian church, went up to Morehead yesterday, where he will speak to-day at the formal opening of the Dormitory of the Morehead school.

THE NEW F. F. V. LIMITED.

Important Change in Schedule of the C. & O's Pet Train.

Commencing Sunday, May 13th the F. F. V. Limited will leave Cincinnati daily at 12:20 noon, arriving in Washington at 7:40 a. m., Baltimore 9:00 a. m., Philadelphia 11:20 a. m. and New York 1:40 p. m. The train will consist of Composite Car, Elegant Day Coach, with smoking compartment, Dining Car, Pullman Sleeping Cars of the latest and most improved design, and an Observation Car. Emphasis is especially placed on the Observation Car. Built by the Pullman Company from Chesapeake & Ohio plans, the F. F. V. Observation Cars serve their purpose better than any others that have ever been constructed.

As the F. F. V. Limited is the only train having an Observation Car attached, it necessarily follows that the Chesapeake & Ohio R'y alone has the scenery interesting enough to demand an Observation Car. The F. F. V. Limited is the only train running through from Cincinnati to New York that enables the business man to transact business in Cincinnati one day and in New York the next. It is the only train that enables the business man to transact business in Cincinnati one day and reach Washington for breakfast next morning. It is the only train for Jersey City Coast resorts, which are reached by the F. F. V., at dinner time instead of in the evening. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick remedies which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Maj. Fowler the Superintendent of the Kentucky Training School is a gentleman of fine taste, and in nothing has he exhibited it more plainly than in the handsome Catalogue of his school, he has had the Advocate Job Room issue for him. Maj. Fowler does not know how to do any thing by halves, and what he does he does well. The splendid school he has built up in our midst is by no means the least monument to his untiring zeal, and thorough consecration to his chosen walk in life. No institution of any character in our midst (save always the church of the Living God) is a greater factor for good than this splendid school. Every man and woman in Mt. Sterling should feel proud of it and its work, and give to the Superintendent both moral and financial support to the tallest extent.

When Giving a Musicales.

At an evening musicale it is wise to limit the performance to either the amateur or professional ranks, as the enforced contrasts are apt to be to the detriment of the former. However, there is no rule in the matter, and it is certainly a matter which rests only with the hostess for decision whether or not she shall add her talents to those she has engaged for the entertainment of her guests. It is not usual to have distributed programmes at a social musicale; if the event be given for any special purpose, and if tickets are sold for it, then the patrons of the entertainment expect to receive programmes. Neither is it usual in the former case to announce either the selections or the performers. A clever hostess will contrive to present a few of her most musical guests to the performers early in the evening so that the artist may enjoy the social side of the musicale. Do not attempt, if you have a large number of guests, to have every one meet every one else. See that the most congenial people meet, and that no one is left to solitary meditation, but do not attempt general introductions at a large affair.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

Literary Breakfasts.

"What are you going to make of this remarkable boy?" some one asked a literary parent, writes Frances Hodgson Burnett in the series "Before It is twenty," the second paper of which appears in the June Ladies' Home Journal.

"What am I going to make of him?" was the answer. "Nothing. I hope to be able to form an intelligent character for him, and then see what he will make of himself."

"But don't you wish him to take to literature?"

"If that is his natural inclination I should be delighted. But he might prefer to be a butcher."

"And in that case?"

"I shall endeavor to help him secure a butcher's shop in the best possible business situation, and try to invest his legs of mutton with an air of picturesque distinction. I suppose that—with an effort—one might surround butchers with an almost dramatic and literary atmosphere."

Among the seventeen full graduates of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, on Thursday evening was the Rev. Everett Gill, of this city. In commenting on the exercises the Courier-Journal says:

"Mr. Everett Gill, of Missouri, who is already a favorite pastor at Mt. Sterling, Ky., had for his theme: 'The Preacher of the Twentieth Century.' His address was applause, which was checked by Dr. Broadus' warning remark: 'Let us have none of that; this is a church.'"

During Mr. Gill's short stay at this people he has won for himself a warm place in their regard. Mr. Gill will now make his home with us.

At Atlanta, Ga., a dynamite bomb was exploded at midnight Thursday almost under the home of D. C. Wall, on Walker street. Wall is a railroad engineer. The side of the house was shattered, but no one was injured. A narrow alley separates Wall's home from the Methodist parsonage occupied by Rev. Eakes. The bomb was thrown from the street, and it is a question as to which house it was intended to wreck.

Two hundred negroes left Birmingham Sunday to take the place of the striking Pennsylvania miners. It is the intention of the Pennsylvania operators to fill every strike's place.

During the past week there were 183 business failures throughout the United States as compared with 238 the corresponding week last year.

Cahler is forty years old and has a family. He is still alive, but cannot live many hours. It is a deplorable tragedy.

The closing exercises of the City Graded School will be held at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening. The program of exercises will be an interesting one, and those who are fortunate enough to attend will be agreeably entertained. The year just closing has been a very successful one with this institution and the teachers are very proud of the work accomplished.

Eugene Chambers the twelve-year-old son of W. W. Chambers, of Lexington, was killed by being run over by an Electric car on Saturday while returning from a Sunday school picnic. The child was jumping from one car to another while they were in motion and although warned of his danger, did not heed. In making a spring he lost his footing and fell, and was cut almost in twain.

The Prix du Jockey Club, the French Derby, worth $27,300, was won at Chantilly Sunday by Gospodar at odds of 16 to 1. After the race the horse and his jockey were attacked by a mob, who believed that in his former race, when Gospodar ran unplaced, he had not been properly ridden.

The monthly debt statement of the Treasury issued Friday shows a net cash balance in the Treasury of $117,854,335, of which $18,603,267 is gold reserve.

Although the recent negotiations conducted by the commission headed by ex-Senator Dawes were fruitless, the Chickasaw Indians are now said to favor the sale of their surplus lands.

KNIGHTHOOD
Is a bay horse, 12 1/2 hands high, good style, heavy mane and tail. He is also a horse of fine action, and is fast. He has shown us quarters over our track repeatedly in 34 seconds. His breeding is excellent and his colts are not only fast, but without exception are fine sires. A 3-year-old colt by him trotted a mile at Indianapolis last October in 2:29 1/2, and will be completed this season. We have a lot of 2-year-olds that are not only good looking, but show great speed. Two of them trotted quarters last fall in 45 and 47 seconds, and the others are even-gaited. KNIGHTHOOD is the best all-purpose horse that has ever made a season in this country. In breeding to this horse you get something that sells for good money. If you get a fast one, you are all right, and if not, you get a horse that will bring from $50 to $100 as a road horse. This statement may be verified by calling at "Maple Hill" and seeing our colts and fillies, or by talking to Joel Foster, who has handled some of the produce of KNIGHTHOOD and sold them at high prices. Aberdeen is noted as a sire of game race horses. KNIGHTHOOD's dam, Ophir, is inherited, being by a son of Almont and out of a mare by Abdalah is the sire of Alamo. His second dam, Queen Didd, is the dam of Red Wilkes, who has been in the list.

KNIGHTHOOD will make the season of 1894 at "Maple Hill Farm," and will serve mares at $15 to insure a Live Colt.

Money due when colts come or mare paired with. If the season money is not paid in thirty days after the colt is foaled, $20 will be due and collected after that time.
